MEDICINAL

REAL ENJOYMENT.

The woman who reads this will understand to the full what Mrs. Tipton meant when she says: "I am enjoying good health." It takes health." It takes a person who has been made wretched by sick-ness to under-stand the joy of health.

There are very many women who suffer as did Mrs. Tipton, who might be cured as she was by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries the drains health.

which weaken women, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It makes weak women famination and diceration, and cures female weakness. It imakes weak women strong, sick women well.

"It is with pleasure I recommend Dr. Pierce's medicine," writes Mrs. Nora Tipton, of Cropper (Cropper Station), Shelby Co., Kentucky. "You remember my case was one of female weakness and weak lungs. I had no appetite and would often spit blood; was confined to my bed almost half of the time and could hardly stand on my feet at times for the pains through my whole body and system. My husband had to pay large doctor bills for me, but since I have taken four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, four of "Pavorite Prescription" and three vials of "Pleasant Pellets' we haven't paid any more doctor bills. It had been seven months since I stopped using Dr. Pierce's medicines and I have been enjoying good health all the time. I can never praise these medicines too highly, for I have received so much benefit. I pray that many who suffer as I did will take Dr. Pierce's medicines. I sm sure they will never fail to cure when given a fair trial. Everyhody tells me I look better than they over saw me. I am sure I feel better than I ever did before.

"Favorite Prescription" has the testimony of thousands of women to its complete cure of womanly diseases. Do not accept an unknown and unproved substitute in its place.

THROUGH THE RAPIDS.

Peter Nissen, of Chicago, made a suc saful trip through the whitpool rapids of the Nisgara river on Saturday afternoon in his boat called the "Fool Kill-

Never in the history of rapids pavigation, it is said, was a larger crowd of persons gathered to see such a performance, and the trip was enough to delight them all. The bridges, the cliffs and vantage points in the gorge were rowded, while down at the whirpool other mysses assembled to see Nissen lo or die.

The people stationed on the bridges alls a out 2.18 o'clock. It ran to the American side and did not again reap-pear in the stream until 3 30 o'clock, when it came out in midstream in tow of a rowboat. It was evident then that N sen had drawn his fire and let off sterm. He intended simply to float nstead of running through under a ful head of running orrough under a full head of steam, as the last steamboat did on June 6, 1861. Straight down the river the two boats come until opposite the old Maid of the Mist landing, when the rowboat shot to shore and sefety, leaving Nissen and his boat to drift into the Nissen was in full view and there was much anxicus excitement among the spectators. Closer and closer the ast as he passed under the bridges at 3 40 o'clock he way-d a farewell and drappe red loside of bis boat, pulling the batch hard down.

I'wo minutes later the red smokestack of the hoat was licked off by a nighty breaker and then the boat cosed and rolled under the influence of the tumnimous waters of the rock canyon. Time and again the bright red bottom was in full view, but the craft did not turn over. For much of the time the boat was sidewise, and "! 4.44 o'c'ock it deshed into the whillpool. Nissen had provided for the loss of the stack and be barred up the opening before he started.

Three minutes after his boat struck the pool the daring navigator appeared in the open hatch. He remained in the pool the caring havigator appeared in the open hatch. He remained in sight only a moment, owing to the roughness of the water, but a few minutes later he climed out on deck and in that position rode along the Canadian shore of the pool as his boat swung around in the awful current. As approached the entrance Nasan dropped out of sight and again closed the batch.

As the boat neared the entrance it was close to the shore and Frederick Presion swam out and caught it. Nissen raised the hatch and as the boat was pulled close to the rocks he stepped ashore. Once during the voyage he was thrown on his head. He failed to get any soundings in the

SWEEPING DECISION AGAINST STRIKERS.

At Memphis, Tenn., on Saturday ast, in the case of the Southern Railway against the striking machinists, Judge Hammond, of the United States District Court, rendered a sweeping decision, which is thus summarized by the Memphis Commercial Appeal:

"Under Judge Hammond's ruling an individual cannot enter upon the com-pany's property to induce by persua-sion an employe to refuse or fall to per-form his duties as an employe.

form his duties as an employe.

"A number of persons cannot establish a picket to induce by persuasion an employe from performing his dutier; or for the purpose of talking to any persons coming to town to accept employment to induce them by persuasion or in any other manner whatever not to accept that employment.

"The striking machinists are enjoined from looking through the cracks or holes in the fences for the purpose of interviewing or talking to employees in order to induce them to leave the serorder to induce them to leave the service of their employer.

"The defendants are prohibited by Judge Hammond from climbing teleor beckoning to employees to come to the fence to be talked to by them in orer to induce the employees to quit

"The defendants are enjoined by Judge Hammond from using either persussion or entreaty to induce apprentices to quit work.

"The defendants are forbidden to congregate near the premises of the company for the purpose of inducing the employees to leave the service. "A person cannot go alone to the home or boarding house of an employee to 'intimidate or coerce him' to leave
